TASTING NOTES

Voluptuous but not overbearing, Sancha opens with an enticing nose of honeycomb, jasmine, citrus oil and dry straw.

Fresh flavors of Bosch pear, fig, white pepper, and green tea meet on the palate with a rich texture and lingering finish.

OVERVIEW

1. Big and well-structured
(reminiscent of a classic Hermitage)
2. Single vineyard expression of Marsanne
(from the famed Westside Paso Robles)
3. Not Sweet
4. Made to impress the nerdiest wine nerd
(Marsanne is not an easy wine to make)

Handmade by Curt Schalchlin, 35, the owner and only employee of Sans Liege Wines. After several years learning from and working for some of the Central Coast's most sought-after producers, Curt decided to go his own way. Sans Liege, now in its second vintage, is an expression of his distinctive approach to winemaking. This release is comprised of five wines originating in a handful of the Central Coast's most up-and-coming vineyards.
